INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION RULES

ARTICLE 1: SCOPE OF THE RULES

The TAIAS is administering the dispute resolution under International Arbitration Rules of the Triple A – International Arbitration Service LTD (these “Rules” or the “Rules”).
2. These Rules govern the arbitration, except that, where any such rule is in conflict with any provision of the law applicable to the arbitration from which the parties cannot derogate, that provision shall prevail. These Rules govern the arbitration, except that, where any such rule is in conflict with any provision of the arbitration provision or arbitration agreement executed by the Parties and on which parties relying in the request for arbitration, however in such case, upon request from the arbitral tribunal or on its own motion, the Arbitrator may rule (after consultations with the parties and the arbitral tribunal) that these Rules will govern. Such ruling of the Administrator is final, it is not appealable and shall not be disturbed by any trier of fact or law.
3. When parties agree to arbitrate under these Rules, or when they provide for arbitration of an international dispute by the TAIAS without designating particular rules, they thereby authorize the TAIAS to administer the arbitration. These Rules specify the duties and responsibilities of the TAIAS in the administering the arbitration. The Administrator may provide services through any of the TAIAS’s case management offices or arbitral institutions with which the TAIAS has agreements of cooperation. Arbitrations administered under these Rules shall be administered only by the TAIAS or by an individual or organization authorized by the TAIAS to do so.
4. Unless the parties agree or the Administrator determines otherwise, the International Expedited Procedures shall apply in any case in which no disclosed claim or counterclaim exceeds USD $5,500,000 exclusive of interest and the costs of arbitration. The parties may also agree to use the International Expedited Procedures in other cases. Upon application of one party, the Administrator may rule that the International Expedited Procedures shall apply. Such ruling of the Administrator is final, it is not appealable and shall not be disturbed by any trier of fact or law. The International Expedited Procedures shall be applied as described in Articles E-1 through E-10 of these Rules, in addition to any other portion of these Rules that is not in conflict with the Expedited Procedures. Where no party's claim or counterclaim exceeds USD $800,000 exclusive of interest, attorneys' fees, and other arbitration costs, the dispute shall be resolved by written submissions only unless the arbitrator determines that an oral hearing is necessary. However, the TAIAS administrator in his own discretion may determine for any case with any size of claims that the International Expedited Procedures shall apply. Such ruling of the Administrator is final, it is not appealable and shall not be disturbed by any trier of fact or law. Upon application of one party, after consultation with all parties, the Administrator may rule in any case that the dispute shall be resolved by written submissions only. Such ruling of the Administrator is final, it is not appealable and shall not be disturbed by any trier of fact or law.
